Act 3 -

문장 속 VoCa 건지기

01. One of the most celebrated political images in modern times is that of Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev pounding his shoe[ ] on the podium while delivering a speech[ ] at the United Nations in 1960.
02. The filmmaker can synchronize[ ] detail and assign[ ] a purpose and cohesion[ ] to the screen image.
03. Its sole justification is its contribution to other images that precede[ ] and follow it.
04. This affects the choices and decisions as to how images are to be shaped, molded, and composed, for they must be considered not just individually but in association, in sequence[ ] .
05. Siletz-Dee-ni began to decline in the mid-1850s when several cultural groups, speaking different languages and dialects[ ], were placed on the same reservation.
06. Fortunately, this language has been immortalized[ ] on a "talking dictionary" using Lane's own voice.
07. Anthropological[ ] consultation has encouraged retailers and corporate leaders to take cultural phenomena into consideration[ ] when planning their marketing strategies.
08. How does taking children on shopping expeditions[ ] affect the parent-child relationship?
09. We feel we should be getting things done, ticking them off a list[ ] .
10. The time for contemplation[ ] has become an object of fear, a demon.
11. Putting aside[ ] the CCU interns' and residents' youthful sense of invulnerability[ ], a junk-food-eating cardiologist seems like a medical contradiction. Such a person is a living example of the cognitive disconnect[ ] between intention and consumption.

12. The papers resented the fact that the colonies, which lacked representation in the British Parliament[ ], had to pay taxes to finance Britain's wars and expanding debt[ ].
13. Serious unrest[ ] arose in 1773, when Britain allowed the East India Company to market tea directly to the colonies, with a price advantage over local merchants[ ].
14. The friends we have in our online social networks differ from offline connections in some ways: such friendships tend to be cumulative[ ]. The average news feed probably contains dozens of[ ] souls in need of consolation[ ].
15. One way to boost[ ] one's status through intelligence-indicating products is to rent the intelligence of others.
16. Typically this has involved hiring craftsmen of very rare, very high intelligence to create custom works of exquisite complexity and novelty[ ].
17. Very complex abstract ornamentation[ ].
18. The genius required to design such products is rare, is in great demand[ ].
19. The wealthy[ ] have always recognized the value of commissioning works from the greatest geniuses they can patronize[ ].
20. Lilian Bauer was extremely talented and driven, but she took giving so far that it was compromising[ ] her reputation
21. Granted that[ ] in a single species some are more perfect than others, no differently than among men.
22. Granted also that they all easily communicate to us by voice or other bodily movements their natural impulses[ ], like anger, fear, hunger, and the like[ ].
23. Thus the word can mean doing something for the love of it, as a pastime[ ] perhaps, but with dedication[ ].

24. The "amateur" virtuosi have proven themselves capable or exceptional[                    ] in their professional fields and now wish to apply their skills to causes[                    ] they care about in new fields.
25. If authority is represented by a series of symbols, opposition to that authority is symbolically represented by an inversion[                    ] of those symbols.
26. If animals are given a choice between two novel stimuli[                    ], one of which is more complex, they will choose the more complex stimulus.
27. Robert had children work on block-design puzzles of moderate[                    ] complexity
28. For instance, a teenager who once enjoyed shopping at Justice, a fashion retailer catering to young girls[                    ], may now view the store as[                    ] immature and childish as she takes on[                    ] a more mature identity.
29. For example, many of the informants posted mobile photos of old photographs taken during childhood, thus incorporating[                    ] their past selves into their emerging identities.
30. They are putting on a show[                    ] for your benefit.
31. By suggesting that someone else would think it was terrific[                    ].
32. They are not necessarily polar opposites[                    ], despite the common perception of these designations[                    ].
33. The context boils down to[                    ] what your metric[                    ] for "health" is.
34. If your metric for health entails[                    ] the occasional indulgence[                    ] high-fat, sugary treats, then certainly a doughnut could be deemed[                    ] "healthy."
35. the doughnut probably won't live up to[                    ] your standards for what's considered healthy.
36. In doing fieldwork, the anthropologist often finds that some of his best interviews are the result of chance encounters[                    ].

37. He learned that the stones were meant to keep demons[ ] out of the house.
38. This was important because his daughter-in-law had just gone into labor[ ], and newborn babies are especially susceptible to any wandering demons who might be sent out by magicians in the employ of the family's enemies[ ].
39. One Japanese blogger, reflecting on the origins of this distinction, speculates[ ] that in a nation 70 percent covered by mountainous terrain[ ], agricultural workers had to cooperate in order to produce sufficient food from very limited fertile land[ ].
40. Despite this distrust of unguarded emotional display[ ], citizens of Japan can expect on average to live up to the age of 75 in full health
41. Strong connection between emotional repression[ ] and systemic illness.
42. The same expectation that we have with respect to[ ] our dogs
43. Intelligent Martians, who had built a network of canals[ ].
44. Interplanetary space probes[ ], revealed hostile[ ] conditions on our sister planets.
45. The types and amount of measurement equipment the researcher takes with him into the field depend largely[ ] upon the purpose of his fieldwork
46. If the climate is tropical, corrosion-resistant implements[ ], silica gel to remove excess moisture, and special tropical packs may be the order of the day.
47. Generation Y has also been dubbed[ ] 'the ME generation'. Indeed, Gen Yers sculpt, craft and storyboard their lives[ ] in social networks to present campaigns of themselves.
48. Out on the vast grassland plains[ ] of Africa, zebra and many species of antelope and gazelle graze the vegetation, migrating to new pastures[ ] as the seasonal rains bring forth fresh growth.
49. Triggering a reduction[ ] in prey numbers, followed by a proportional drop[ ] in predator populations.

50. One of the most conspicuous[ ] examples of the power of language in the business.
51. As companies created tremendous prestige[ ] for an ordinary product.
52. With taste being more or less equal, what is it that elevates[ ] the luxury brand?
53. These masterful words evoke[ ] positive images with which customers aspire to associate[ ].
54. By the same token[ ].
55. People can develop aversions[ ] and dislike foods that they ate when they felt sick.
56. Starting with a blank slate[ ] gives you room to start fresh without the constraints[ ] of your old system.
57. To retrieving the correct action[ ] directly from memory.
58. Consider the transporter[ ] in Star Trek and the resurrection[ ] of dinosaurs in Jurassic Park.
59. He drew a random card[ ] - one that stated[ ], for example, that he had enjoyed a phenomenally good bottle of wine.
60. They have also reduced the number of school suspensions[ ] for fighting.
61. Peer mediators[ ] are usually nominated[ ] by peers or teachers.
62. The golden ratio in the sonatas of Mozart, Beethoven's Fifth Symphony or more recently in pieces[ ] by Bartok, Messiaen and Stockhausen.
63. Residents of a retirement community can help fill that void[ ].
64. Lots of volunteers say that one of their biggest rewards is getting to know people from different walks of life[ ].

65. He had chronic[ ] voice problems.
66. When he mimicked[ ] his acting roles he frequently noticed how the position of his head shifted, placing increasing levels of stress on his neck and his breathing.
67. He could feel how his throat tightened while he delivered his lines[ ] .
68. Creativity and innovation are not the sole preserve[ ] of knowledge workers in glassy offices, professional artists and musicians, or of laboratory scientists.
69. Covering everything from food politics to favorite recipes, and studded with culinary celebrity guests[ ], The Splendid Table has been a mainstay[ ] for anyone wanting to be informed, challenged, and entertained through talk about food here and abroad.
70. The children in the experiments generally couldn't stand still[ ] for a long time, but their endurance increased if they pretended to be[ ] guards on watch.
71. This was largely due to harsh[ ] global climatic conditions, which stabilized[ ] sometime around 10,000 years ago.
72. People soon thereafter discovered farming and irrigation[ ], and they gave up their nomadic lifestyle in order to cultivate and tend stable crops[ ] .
73. For instance, Uganda experienced a prolonged drought[ ] in 2004 and 2005, threatening the food supply.
74. In some heavily commercial cities, such as New York, they had already become ubiquitous[ ]: the 1855 census[ ] recorded clerks as the city's third largest occupational group, just behind servants and laborers.
75. You know the world is not what it seems, and all it takes is one great optical illusion[ ] to prove it.
76. As a modern person you should know that a motion picture[ ] is just individual photographs passing by faster than your brain can process[ ] .

90. We are best off[ ] when we consume both kinds.
91. Access to animal foods bestows[ ] health and well-being above and beyond mere survival.
92. I do not think that it is an arbitrary[ ] cultural fact therefore.
93. He spent years at homes of foster parents[ ].
94. When his acting career reached a dead end and he was nearly broken[ ], with a pregnant wife.
95. The story of Rocky, whose first draft[ ] was completed in three days, is very similar to his own life: a poor boxer triumphs against great odds[ ].
96. Mann could not tolerate the lawless mob[ ].
97. Erected[ ] in the shadow of Alabama's Capitol[ ], the black granite is inscribed[ ] with the names of those who lost their lives in the battles .
98. Mann had believed in the laws of segregation and was sworn to uphold [ ] them.
99. The game of incompetence is a major problem for many people. They simply learn that incompetence pays off[ ].
100. Conversely[ ], the use of "we" generally demonstrates an awareness of other people
101. Animal, fungi, bacteria - that live on[ ] dead and decaying[ ] life take resources from each other.
102. 'Legend has it,'[ ] according to a report, 'that a slave in a royal Egyptian household forgot about some dough he had set aside[ ].
103. Nowadays, of course, yeast is added artificially[ ].
104. He punched down the dough[ ] furiously and baked it.

105. In later life Berkeley hatched[ ] an ambitious plan to set up[ ] a college on the island of Bermuda.
106. The islanders used magic rituals[ ] abundantly[ ].
107. The islanders used magic to keep insects from devouring[ ] their crops.
108. When the islanders felt their own work and skill would determine success or failure, they did not resort to[ ] magic
109. Some called my special education students "different." For years they had been laughed at[ ] and labeled in school.
110. I am following in the footsteps of my grandpa, who was a principal[ ],
111. The expression of emotions via[ ] facial expressions is relatively invariable.
112. One effect of groups on individual behavior is social facilitation[ ].
113. At high levels of arousal, our performance of simple tasks is facilitated[ ].
Our performance of complex responses may be impaired[ ], however.
114. For this reason, a well-rehearsed speech may be delivered[ ] masterfully before a larger audience, while an impromptu speech[ ] may be inhibited [ ] by a large audience.
115. When giving a speech, we may "lose our thread"[ ] if we are distracted by the audience and focus too much on its apparent reaction.
116. Sometimes a filmmaker may purposely strive to evoke[ ] a variety of subjective interpretations by developing a film around a riddle [ ] or puzzling quality.
117. The filmmaker attempts to suggest or mystify instead of communicating clearly and attempts to pose moral or philosophical questions[ ] rather than provide answers.

118. Whereas in more instrumental[ ] situations (e.g., dealing with defective merchandise)[ ] they use self-action strategies (return the product).
119. Tom's belief that Jane stood him up[ ] could dramatically affect his perception of how rewarding it would be to interact with Jane in the future.
120. To my increased irritation[ ], I found they rarely slowed and averted their eyes[ ] so as not to[ ] look at me as they raced by.
121. The problem is that if we call this "selfish," then literally[ ] everything becomes selfish.
122. If someone is crying: Let her cry. If someone drops his boarding pass[ ].
123. The wise old man nodded[ ] in agreement.
124. Instead of avoiding one another and hiding from predators through camouflage [ ] and inactivity, these locusts gather in swarms[ ], feed together, and overwhelm[ ] their predators through sheer numbers.
125. The close-cropped lawn[ ]," he wrote in The Theory of the Leisure Class [ ], "is beautiful in the eyes of a people whose inherited bent[ ] it is to readily find pleasure in contemplating[ ] a well-preserved pasture or grazing land.
126. Because the prince was to succeed[ ] his father as king, the wise old sage[ ] was charged with teaching the boy the basics of success, abundance, and prosperity[ ].
127. The grass drinking the morning dew[ ].
128. The young warrior was puzzled[ ] by the old man's request. Had he not discerned[ ] every sound already?
129. For days and nights on end[ ],

130. After several months of introspection[ ], the prince returned to the temple to describe all that he had heard.

131. Qualities such as lightness, portability, and adaptability[ ] were dominant criteria[ ].

132. Tradition was not static[ ], but constantly subject to minute variations [ ] appropriate to people and their circumstances.

133. How value is added to basic food commodities[ ].

134. Conversion[ ] of potatoes (cheap) to potato chips (expensive) to those fried in artificial fats.

135. This conclusion is solidified[ ] by the fact that similar trends are apparent in most advanced countries.

136. Domesticated species[ ] don't command our respect[ ] the way their wild cousins often do.

137. Evolution may reward interdependence[ ], but our thinking selves continue to prize self-reliance[ ].

138. With parents sheltering[ ] and feeding their children, and children, in return, kicking something back[ ] into the family cashbox.

139. The crowd that gathers naturally pities the shopkeeper and admonishes the vandal [ ].

140. I vowed[ ] that someday I would make it up[ ] to her.

141. When people don't know or don't believe the code, they draw on[ ] their own knowledge and skill, or invent new ideas or methods to get their work done.

142. They also generate a larger pool of ideas - especially novel[ ] ideas their pursuit of affluence is instrumental[                      ].

143. French economist Frédéric Bastiat in his parable[                      ] of the broken window.

144. One result of overabundance[                      ] is pressure to add value to foods through processing[                      ].

145. The producers of raw foods receive only a fraction[                      ] of the price.

146. Retail cost[                      ]

147. The benefit of concealing coloration[                      ] consistently yields a small edge [                      ] in the chance[                      ] of living through each successive threatening encounter[                      ].

151. Carmen is a shy 10-year-old who has trouble thinking on her feet [                      ].

152. Carmen is a very good piano player and has been practicing Christmas carols a lot lately[                      ].

153. Sturdier infrastructure[                      ].

154. When we still had vast stretches of open land[                      ], the growth model brought roads and houses and central heating and full bellies[                      ].

155. For a long time, growth did contribute to those fundamental goals, although it's important to remember that growth in some places has too often required the exploitation[                      ] of others.

156. Aside from[ ] the balance of challenges and skills, enjoyable experiences provide clarity[ ] of goals.
157. This is not because they are less educated or less competent[ ].
158. Government-subsidized[ ] rates.
159. This conversion[ ] adversely[ ] affects women because women have access to communal land while they are excluded from private holdings
160. Limiting the land available for development[ ] can help channel development[ ] to fill in existing[ ] developed areas.
161. Higher densities[ ] and more compact[ ] patterns can be used to accommodate[ ] growth needs, rather than converting open land to urban uses.
162. Similarly, they can separate different land uses, which might otherwise be incompatible[ ].
